

Kamilla Spark

Graduate of Columbia University in New York, where she completed a full-time MBA programme with a specialisation in Finance and Accounting, and of the University of Warsaw, where she obtained a Master's degree in English Philology. She holds a Chartered Director qualification (No. 839) from the Institute of Directors (IoD) in the United Kingdom and is a member of the Association of Independent Supervisory Board Members.

Since 2018, she has been affiliated with the University of Cambridge, where she serves as a mentor to students in the Master of Studies in Entrepreneurship programme at the Judge Business School, and advises small and medium-sized enterprises within a programme sponsored by Barclays Eagle Labs. Until 2023, she co-managed a portfolio of innovative companies at the university's accelerator, Accelerate Cambridge. As a Fellow of Cambridge Judge Business School, she led seminars and workshops in finance and lectured on corporate entrepreneurship.

She has extensive experience serving as an independent member of supervisory boards. She has sat on the supervisory boards of publicly listed companies including Grupa Kęty S.A. and PCC Exol S.A., where she also chaired the Audit Committee. She was a member of the Supervisory Board of the Fundusz Giza Polish Ventures fund, which invested in over 30 innovative companies and delivered one of the strongest performance records among venture capital funds in Poland.

In the United Kingdom, she served as a member of the Board of Directors and the Finance Committee of the National Union of Students, and as a Governor (non-executive director) and member of the Audit Committee of Long Road Sixth Form College in Cambridge. As part of a working group established by the Institute of Directors (IoD), she contributed to the development of corporate governance best practices for third-sector organisations.

Previously, she held the position of Investment Director at Mezzanine Management, the first mezzanine financing fund in Poland. She also worked as a banker at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and as an Adviser to the Management Board of NFI Foksal S.A.
